Combing Won't Rid Hair Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

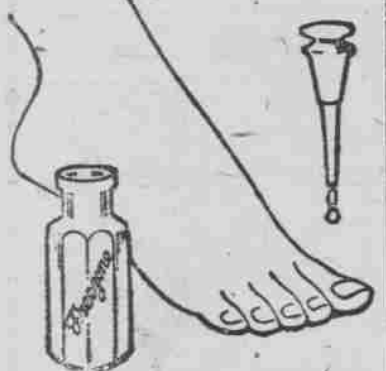

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.—Adv.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus, instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

A DEATH PARALLEL

London's Second "Victory Ball"
Fatality a Suicide.

Central Figure in Many International Romances Victim.

YEAR AFTER CHARLETON CASE

American Actress Found Dead
Following Armistice Dance.

Both Women Were Beautiful and Leaders in Society.

London, Nov. 14.—London's second "Victory ball" death was a suicide, a coroner's jury decided today.

Mrs. Alma Velsera Steane, central figure in many international romances, died from poison, self-administered, the jury found. She was believed to have been insane. A physician testified at the inquest she previously had attempted to take her life.

Mrs. Steane's death came almost exactly one year after that of Billie Charleston, American actress, who was found dead in her apartment after London's first "Victory ball" immediately following the signing of the armistice.

The cases presented many parallel incidents. Both Miss Charleston and Mrs. Steane were beautiful and very popular in a certain class of London society.

WOMAN'S CLUB PLANS

Mrs. W. A. McCarter, President, Explains Past and Future to C. of C.

Declaring that there was no place in Topeka, big enough, except the fair grounds, to entertain the full force of the Woman's Club, 450 strong, Mrs. W. A. McCarter, president, in a decidedly vivid talk this noon at the Chamber of Commerce, outlined the plans, aims, and ambitions of the women in their endeavor to construct a club house.

Members of the club were guests at luncheon today at the Chamber of Commerce. In a brief pictorialization, Mrs. McCarter traced the development of the club and outlined the history of achievements made by the organization, such as bringing art exhibits here, closing of stores on Saturday, the Mothers' club, the Providence association, the child labor law, the Crittenton home, the reception of Kansas soldiers, both the men of the Spanish-American war, and the world war, and many other features due to the consistent, patient work of the club.

The answer as to whether or not a club of such high caliber and such a tremendous value to the community and state should be suitably housed in order to carry out its work to the best advantage was left to the discretion of the assembly. Only one possible decision could have resulted. Following the speech, the men of the Chamber of Commerce voted unanimously to lend all possible support to the club women.

The Woman's club has already purchased ground at Ninth and Topeka avenue, valued at the time of purchase at $2,000, and worth several thousand more at present. They have $4,000 in their treasury and a mortgage worth $500.

Mrs. McCarter did not today disclose the plans of the women for raising the funds necessary to erect a suitable building but indicated that they were not in doubt as to the final outcome. As to the maintenance of the club house, she left no possible doubt that it would be accomplished.

Mrs. McCarter was introduced by Carroll Merriam, president of the Chamber of Commerce. After her talk, Mrs. McCarter called upon Mrs. S. S. Estey, who responded briefly. During the noon hour music was furnished by the Cozy theater orchestra by courtesy of Miss Ruth White.

SUES FOR PATRIOTISM

Lyndon Man Asks $40,000 From
Y. M. C. A. Committee.

Emporia, Nov. 14.—Henry Bingenhammer, of Lyndon, has filed suit in district court in Lyon county for $40,000 damages against twelve residents of Lyon and Osage counties who, Bingenhammer claims, forced him to subscribe $500 to the Y. M. C. A. and made fun of him afterwards. In his petition Bingenhammer says a committee visited him in Lyndon last November, compelled him to borrow $500 at a bank, then followed him to the court house, using loud and boisterous language and making threats of personal injuries. He alleged the crowd painted his buggy yellow and compelled him to sit in the seat which he claims also was painted. The plaintiff asks $20,000 damages for alleged mental anguish suffered and $20,000 punitive damages. The case is said to have been brought in Lyon county because of ill feeling which is said to exist in Bingenhammer's home town. Mrs. F. W. Curry, of Emporia, and the Rev. E. C. Thayer, of Lyndon, are among the defendants.

HEART AND BEAUTY PROBLEMS

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am keeping company with two young men. One has an automobile and has a richer father than the other. My whole family likes him the best and thinks I am crazy to prefer the other. I can tell that both are serious about their intentions and for some time I have been warring with myself. I love the other young man with all my heart. We have known each other for two years and in that time I have cared for no one else.

Do you think I would make a mistake to marry the man I love although my family ridicules my taste?

DOROTHY.

Marry the man you love regardless of what your family thinks. In two years you will have had time to test your love. Since it has lasted so long you prove true. Let your age influence you, too. If you are in your teens it would be unwise to consider marriage with either young man.

Your parents do not have the same opportunity to see the young man's good qualities that you do. He shows himself to you. They can see the automobile and the riches of the other man's father.

You must live with your husband, not they, and so choose the man you love.

HIT CAR, DRUNK, CLAIM

James Coney, Mayetta, Charged With Reckless Driving by Police.

John Barleycorn caused James Coney of Mayetta, all sorts of trouble on Kansas avenue today.

Coney, so the police say, spent too much time in "visiting with John" this morning and drove up Kansas avenue like a snake crawling thru a wheat field. Between Fifth and Sixth streets on Kansas avenue C. W. Snodgrass, 1265 Boswell, was driving a little in advance of Coney.

The man from Mayetta wanted to pass him and seemingly didn't wish to waste any time in performing the feat. He drove right into the rear of the Snodgrass car.

Detective Harvey Williams saw the accident and hurried out into the street where he put Coney under arrest. Coney, Williams says, attempted to fight. There are three charges against him on the police blotter, "Drunk, resisting an officer and reckless driving."

CAR HITS FIRE TRUCK

Collision, Twelfth and Fillmore, Puts Company No. 4 Out of Commission.

In a collision Thursday evening about 6 o'clock at Twelfth and Fillmore streets, between a fire truck from Station No. 4 and a west bound street car, the truck was badly damaged. No one was injured.

On account of a house being moved down the street, the truck, coming up Fillmore street, proceeded slowly around the obstruction, and did not see the approaching street car until it struck the front end of the truck and raked by for its complete length. If there had been a foot of space to spare the collision could have been avoided.

Today truck company No. 4 is out of commission pending the repair of the damaged fire apparatus. The front end of the frame of the truck is badly bent.

FIX CAMP FOR MEN

Quarantine for Social Diseased at Lansing Prison.

Treatment Similar to That Accorded the Women.

In a final order today the state board of administration made final the plan to establish a quarantine camp at Lansing for men suffering from venereal disease. Treatment of men will be similar to that accorded women, under the plan of the board. Nearly 100 men suffering from social diseases are now at Lansing and the board order makes effective and final the state's program for treatment of men.

Several actions to prevent removal of men to the Lansing farm have come before the court. In view of the fact that final action in establishing a men's farm has not been taken, a weakness was found in the operation of the act. The board today, however, gave official notice that the quarantine camp would be located on the state penitentiary reservation at Lansing.

By this move, Kansas counties may transport both men and women to Lansing when they are found to be suffering from disease.

TAKE OVER TIMBER LAND

Public Ownership Urged for Preservation and Production.

New York, Nov. 14.—Public ownership of timber land, national or state—with private cutting and marketing—was advocated by the paper and pulp association's committee on forest conservation in a report submitted to the association conference here today.

Such ownership was said to be essential for the growing of the older and larger sizes of timber, its production being too long and hazardous an undertaking with too little earnings to attract private capital in adequate amounts. In line with this opinion speedy adoption and execution of national and state forest policies coordinated and co-operative, was urged.

Forest survey and land classification as first steps were declared necessary. Public purchase of cut-over lands by the nation and the states should be enlarged and extended to all parts of the country, the report said. It also advocated more vigorous and general extension of fire prevention cooperation between the nation and the states, state adoption of uniformly fair forest taxation laws, establishment of forest nurseries and the preparation of forest working plans.

A very large program of forest planting on denuded lands which show little promise of new natural crops was urged.
